

QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of Pressform Engineering Pty Ltd to deliver to its client's products, which fully satisfy their specifications and expectations.

Customer satisfaction is essential to Pressform's success and is therefore a primary objective necessitating an ongoing commitment to proper planning and control of the companies operating practices.

In order to meet this primary objective, Pressform is committed to the implementation and maintenance of a quality system in accordance with the Australian ISO 9001:2008 Quality Standard through SAI Global.

The quality system is described in the Pressform Quality Manual and supporting procedures, which are controlled by the Quality Manager, who has the authority to ensure the company policies are adhered to.

The final responsibility for Pressform's operations rests with the Managing Director, however each individual is responsible for the quality of his or her own work.
